

PRIVACY POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 This Privacy Policy is to provide information to you on how your personal information (which includes your sensitive information, including your health information) is collected and used within our practice, MALBOROUGH MEDICAL SERVICES PTY LTD (ABN 68 000 224 386), and the circumstances in which we may share it with third parties.

2. WHY AND HOW YOUR CONSENT IS NECESSARY

2.1 When you register as a patient of a doctor who consults from our practice, you provide consent for us (including our employees, agents, contractors and other representatives) to access and use your personal information so the general practitioners operating from our practice can provide you with the best possible healthcare. Only persons who need to see your personal information will have access to it. If we need to use your information for any other purposes, we will seek additional consent from you to do so.

3. WHY WE COLLECT, USE, HOLD AND SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

3.1 Our practice will need to collect your personal information to facilitate the provision of healthcare services to you by the independent medical practitioners operating from our practice. Our main purpose for collecting, using, holding and sharing your personal information is to facilitate the management of your health by those independent medical practitioners. We also use it for directly related business activities, such as financial claims and payments, practice audits and accreditation, and business processes (e.g., staff training).

4. PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

4.1 The information we collect about you include you're:

- (a) names, date of birth, addresses, contact details including emergency contact and next of kin;
- (b) demographic information, including gender, cultural background, and religious beliefs;
- (c) medical information including medical history, medications, allergies, adverse events, immunisations, social history, family history and risk factors;
- (d) Medicare number (where available) for identification and claiming purposes;
- (e) healthcare identifiers;
- (f) payment and / or financial information
- (g) concession card details; and
- (h) health fund details.

5. DEALING WITH US ANONYMOUSLY

5.1 You have the right to deal with us anonymously or under a pseudonym unless it is impracticable for us to do so or unless we are required or authorised by law to only deal with identified individuals.

5.2 Please be aware that Medicare rebates are only available where a Medicare card (and / or associated information) is available. As such your doctor may require you to pay for your consults in full without this rebate if you choose to deal with us anonymously or under a pseudonym.

6. HOW WE COLLECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

6.1 Our practice may collect your personal information in several different ways:

- (a) You may provide us with your personal information directly (for example, when you make an appointment with a medical practitioner operating from our practice, our practice staff will collect your personal and demographic information via your registration).
- (b) The medical practitioners providing medical services may also collect further personal information from you which may be disclosed to us. Information can also be collected through My Health Record, e.g., via Shared Health Summary, Event Summary or through a Discharge Summary provided by a hospital or other healthcare service providers.
- (c) We may also collect your personal information when you contact us via our website, send us an email or SMS, telephone us, make an online appointment or communicate with us using social media.
- (d) In some circumstances personal information may also be collected from other sources. Often this is because it is not practical or reasonable to collect it from you directly. This may include information from:
 - I. Your guardian or responsible person;
 - II. Other involved healthcare providers, such as specialists, allied health professionals, hospitals, community health services and pathology and diagnostic imaging services; and / or
 - III. your health fund, Medicare, or the Department of Veterans' Affairs (as necessary).

6.2 If a clinician deems it in your best interest to discuss your clinical information with you, we will arrange for this to occur either in person, via telephone or via videoconference.

7. WHEN, WHY AND WITH WHOM WE USE AND SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

7.1 We collect, use and disclose your personal information to facilitate the provision of medical services to you by the independent medical practitioners operating from our practice.

7.2 We may also share your personal information:

- (a) with other healthcare providers;
- (b) when it is required or authorised by law (e.g., court subpoenas, or where we are obliged to make a mandatory notification to a regulatory body);
- (c) when it is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious threat to a patient's life, health or safety or public health or safety, or where it is otherwise impractical to obtain your consent;
- (d) to assist in locating a missing person;
- (e) to establish, exercise or defend a claim;
- (f) or the purposes of confidential dispute resolution processes;

(g) during the course of providing nursing support services;

(h) for the purposes of uploading that information to your My Health Record, such as through the shared health summary or event summary; and / or

(i) with third parties who work with our practice for business purposes, such as accreditation agencies or information technology providers – these third parties are required to comply with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) and this policy.

7.3 Only people who need to access your information will be able to do so. Other than in the course of facilitating the provision of medical services or as otherwise described in this policy, our practice will not share personal information with any third party without your consent.

7.4 We will not share your personal information with anyone outside Australia (unless under exceptional circumstances that is permitted by law) without your consent.

7.5 Our practice will not use your personal information for marketing any of our goods or services directly to you without your express consent. If you do consent, you may opt out of direct marketing at any time by notifying our practice in writing

8. HOW WE STORE AND PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

8.1 Your personal information may be stored at our practice in various forms.

8.2 Our practice stores information as electronic records (including via cloud-based services), visual (including photos) and archived paper records.

8.3 Our practice stores all personal information securely via the use of passwords, encrypted back-ups, confidentiality agreements for staff and secure cabinets.

8.4 All records will be retained until the later of seven (7) years from your last contact with the practice, or until you reach the age of twenty-five (25).

8.5 We take steps to destroy or de-identify information that we no longer require.

8.6 Our server security policy is designed to protect the servers from unauthorised access, data breaches, and other security threats. Our practice uses the following security measures to ensure the personal information which it holds is secured:

(a) Antivirus software is installed on all servers and updated regularly.

(b) Firewalls are configured to block unauthorised traffic.

(c) Servers are placed on their own subnet.

(d) Access to servers is restricted to authorised users.

(e) Physical access to the servers are limited, with servers located in a locked room and security cameras installed around the building.

(f) Servers are patched regularly to fix security vulnerabilities.

(g) Backups are created regularly every hour onsite with daily offsite backups.

9. HOW CAN YOU ACCESS AND CORRECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION AT OUR PRACTICE?

9.1 You have the right to request access to, and correction of, your personal information.

9.2 Our practice acknowledges patients may request access to their medical records. You can lodge this request either via email (manager@goodhealth.net.au) or telephone. Our practice will acknowledge your request within three (3) business days. We can post the requested information to your postal address, or we can email the information to you if you request it. If we are required to process a request for your records, we may charge for our reasonable costs incurred in complying with your request.

9.3 Our practice will take reasonable steps to correct your personal information where the information is not accurate or up to date. From time to time, we will ask you to verify that your personal information held by our practice is correct and current. You may also request that we correct or update your information, and you should make such requests in writing to (manager@goodhealth.net.au). There is no fee charged for making corrections to your personal information.

10 HOW CAN YOU LODGE A PRIVACY-RELATED COMPLAINT, AND HOW WILL THE COMPLAINT BE HANDLED AT OUR PRACTICE?

10.1 We take complaints and concerns regarding privacy seriously. You should express any privacy concerns (including any breach of the APPs or any registered binding APP code) you may have in writing.

10.2 Complaints should be addressed to:

(a) Name and Position: Gemma Foster, Office Manager

(b) Address: Complaints Officer, Good Health Greenhills, PO Box 2516 Greenhills, NSW 2323

(c) Email: manager@goodhealth.net.au

10.3 We will respond with acknowledgement of your complaint within three (3) business days and provide a response within thirty (30) business days.

10.4 You may also contact the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC). Generally, the OAIC will require you to give them time to respond before they will investigate. For further information, visit www.oaic.gov.au or call the OAIC on 1300 363 992.
